Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common Council, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth, with Hearts full of Gratitude, Affection and Reverence towards your Majeſty, as the Father of your People, beg to offer our unfeigned Congratulations on your Majeſty's late happy Eſcape from an Attempt to deprive your People of a Sovereign ſo juſtly dear to them.

We cannot entertain an Idea, that the Life of a Prince (ſo conſpicuous for every Virtue that can adorn the human Mind) could be attempted, but by a Perſon unhappily devoid both of Reaſon and Reflection.

May the ſame Providence, who guarded your Majeſty in this Inſtance, continue to protect and preſerve your Majeſty, and, after a long and happy Reign, may the Crown deſcend in your illuſtrious Family to the lateſt Poſterity.

[Signed by 141 Perſons.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of the City of Edinburgh, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, loyal, and affectionate Subjects, the Lord Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of the City of Edinburgh, beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon with the warmeſt Congratulations to your Majeſty, and ſincereſt Thanks to Heaven, for the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Life in the Moment of Danger.

Firmly attached to your Majeſty's Perſon and Family, and deeply ſenſible of the many Bleſſings which we enjoy under your Majeſty's Government, we reflect with Horror on the late daring Attempt of a wretched Aſſaſſin, and entreat your Majeſty to be careful of a Life ſo dear to us and ſo important to the Nation.

May that God who has reſcued you from Death long preſerve your Majeſty for the Happineſs of your People, and for the Defence of our glorious and free Conſtitution.

Signed in our Name and by our Appointment, and the Seal of the City affixed hereto, the Eighteenth of Auguſt, 1786.

J. Hunter Blair, Provoſt.

The Two following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Rutland, Lord Lieutenant of the Kingdom of Ireland, to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have by him been preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, moſt humbly beg your Majeſty to accept our unfeigned Congratulations upon the Bleſſing Almighty God has continued to your Majeſty's Subjects, in preſerving your Life in the late Peril, from which it was ſo providentially delivered.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that our Loyalty to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government is ſimilar to that which our Predeceſſors have in all Times of Difficulty and Danger manifeſted to your Majeſty's Royal Progenitors, Lords and Kings of Ireland; and the Hiſtory and Records of this Kingdom do ſhew that Loyalty to have been unbounded.

We ſhould feel the greateſt Horror and deepeſt Affliction for the Depravity of Human Nature, if we thought it poſſible that an Attempt to deprive us of ſo good a King could have proceeded from any Thing but Inſanity; and, until that Matter ſhall be tried by due Courſe of Law, we ſhall continue to comfort ourſelves with the Hope that ſuch a fatal Purpoſe could only be entertained in a Mind which Reaſon had abandoned.

That your Majeſty may long live our King, enthroned in the Hearts of a free People, and at length cloſe an happy Reign in Glory and Tranquility, is the fervent Prayer of this loyal City.

In Teſtimony whereof we have cauſed the Common Seal of the ſaid City to be hereunto affixed, this Fourteenth Day of Auguſt, 1786.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Inhabitants of the County of Meath, at an Aſſizes held at Trim, the Fourteenth Day of Auguſt, 1786.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Inhabitants of the County of Meath, embrace the earlieſt Opportunity to approach your Throne, with our unfeigned Congratulations on your Majeſty's moſt happy Eſcape from the late daring and impious Attempt upon your Sacred Perſon; an Attempt which, though it was the Suggeſtion of Inſanity and Weakneſs, yet has raiſed a Tumult of Diſtreſs among your Majeſty's faithful Subjects of this Kingdom, and filled their Minds with the tendereſt Anxiety for the Safety of their beloved Sovereign.

We beg Leave moſt humbly to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall be, at all Times, ready and willing to adventure Life, Property, and every Thing that is dear to us, in the Support and Defence of your Majeſty, and your Royal Houſe. We are happy in the Perſuaſion that theſe Sentiments of Duty and Affection to your Majeſty are univerſal throughout your extended Empire, and that any evil Attempt, which might ſeem to contradict them could only proceed from one who was deſtitute of the Powers of Reaſon and Reflection.

We offer up our unfeigned Acknowledgments to that Guardian Power, by whom the Rulers of the Earth are protected in the Enjoyment of their juſt Rights, and whoſe watchful Superintendance was ſo ſignally manifeſted in the Preſervation of your Royal Perſon. To the ſame unfailing Protection we humbly commit your Majeſty, with our ardent Prayers, that the Favour of Heaven may ever be exerted in your Preſervation; that the Deſigns of Perfidy and Weakneſs may be equally cruſhed and rendered abortive, and that your Majeſty may be long ſpared over theſe

Nations,

Nations, a Bleſſing to your People, and the Guardian of their Rights.

Accept, moſt Gracious Sovereign, theſe unfeigned Sentiments of our Breaſts, not the Dictates of unmeaning Formality, but the ſincere Effuſions of Loyalty and Truth. For while Juſtice and Gratitude have any Influence over the human Mind, your Majeſty muſt reign in the Hearts of a faithful, affectionate, and free People.
